VOTED

SA.06.06.01 – To approve the verbal report of the Credential Committee

Motion made to adopt minor changes to the agenda, the Rev. Ed Voosen.

VOTED

SA.06.06.02 - To approve the agenda as revised.

The Rev. Ed Voosen announced that the Synod Minutes Committee was in place.
The Rev. Voosen explained that nominations would be received through late afternoon for Synod Council, Churchwide Assembly, Committee on Consultation and Committee on Discipline.

Ecclesiastical Ballot for Bishop – Mark Winzler introduces ELCA Secretary, the Rev. Lowell Almen, who discussed the responsibilities and work of a Bishop.

1st Ballot for Bishop

Bishop's Report – Mark Winzler introduced Bishop Margaret G. Payne

Bishop Payne presented her report, Rooted for Life: Planting Seeds for the Future. During the past six years, the ministry of the Synod has improved, drawing upon the strength of the roots (including our ecumenical partnerships). Like a tree we are not only Rooted for Life but called to go out on a limb, in risky places, for the sake of the Gospel.

Bishop Payne recognized the Synod Council and the Synod Staff: the Rev. Ted Asta and the Rev. Rebecca Bourret; associates to the Bishop; the Rev. Jane O'Hara Shields, ELCA mission director deployed to the New England Synod; the Rev. Ron Jackson, coordinator of retirement ministries; and the Rev. Alice Kerr Laird, the Rev. Lisa Stoen Hazelwood, the Rev. Tim Roser and Mr. Steven Kennedy, ministry specialists.

Interlude – Mark Mummert, ELW Sampler

Healing the Wounds – The Rev. Tom Maehl, chair, introduced by Bishop Payne: The Rev. Elaine Hewes, the Rev. David Thorp, the Rev. Thomas Teichmann and Barbara Lamson introduced as members of the Healing the Wounds of Racism Community. The Community offered prayer, a story and time to contemplate on who are inside and outside the gates of our communities.

Interlude - Mark Mummert, ELW Sampler

Results of 1st Ballot for Bishop

ELECTED Bishop Margaret G. Payne received 365 votes of the 434 valid votes cast achieving the ¾ needed to elect a Bishop on the First Ballot.

Acceptance Speech - Bishop Payne spoke to her understanding of God's eccentric grace that is extended to all of us: Affirmation of her dedication to be about continued ministry.

ELCA Report & Video – The Rev. Ted Asta introduced the Rev. Dr. Lowell Almen, Secretary of the ELCA, who presented a video report from ELCA presiding Bishop, the Rev. Mark Hanson, and then discussed the ELCA commitment to Global Mission and the importance to remember our military chaplains and all military personnel in our prayers.

Keynote Address: Part 1 – The Rev. Dr. Barbara Rossing – Professor of New Testament at the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago. Dr. Rossing brought greetings from the eight ELCA seminaries and spoke to the need for Lutherans to debunk Rapture Theology.

Closing Song and Prayer – The Rev. Tim Keyl

Vespers with Revelation Pastiche, 7:15 PM

FRIDAY, JUNE 09, 2006

Taize Morning Prayer – Crowne Plaza Amphitheater, the Rev. Tim Keyl, 8:15 AM

Opening Hymn – Mark Mummert, 9:06 AM

Voting Member Responsibilities – Mark Winzler introduced Synod Council Members: Heidi Jakoby, Dick Johnson and Rick Kremer

Greetings from Synod Council – Mark Winzler

Synod Council members came forward and were recognized by the Assembly. Council members noted ministries that they wished the Assembly and parishes to support. Kristen Swan spoke on behalf of the youth and young adults of the Synod as a member of the Synod's Youth and Young Adult Team. Synod Treasurer, Ernie Dossin, announced that the financial strength of the Synod is great and that Calumet Lutheran Camp and Conference Center is in a great shape, as well. Sarah Groleau spoke to the fact that even though the Synod financial state is in great shape the full recommendations of the Synod Council were not met by parish commitments so that various programs, ones deemed necessary, had to be weighed as to priority in order to make the budget balance. Sarah noted that if every parish gave at least a tithe to the ministries of the Synod and the ELCA we would be able fulfill all budget requests for ministry. She thanked the 20 congregations that are giving a tithe or more. She encouraged the Assembly to discern with their parishes how the Spirit might best move us all to give "extravagantly" and move toward tithing.

Prayer – The Rev. Dr. Lowell Almen

RESOLUTION S06.02

WHEREAS: Our Church desires to have Synod Assemblies that are representative of our cultural and age-range diversity; and

WHEREAS: The current practice of having Assemblies Thursdays through Saturdays prohibits many of our members who are “outside the gate” from being delegates; be it

RESOLVED: That the Assembly Planning Committee consider convening future New England Synod Assemblies Friday afternoons through Sunday noon.

Suggestion for Friday, Saturday, Sunday Synod Assemblies alternated with Thursday, Friday Saturday proposed.

An amendment was proposed that future Assemblies be held from Friday afternoon to Saturday afternoon from time to time. Proposal was seconded. Discussion ensued.

The time limit for discussion on the Amendment to Resolution was reached.

VOTED

Motion for resolution called.

VOTED

SA.06.06.12 – to approve Resolution S06.02.

RESOLUTION S06:01

Toward remaining faithful and united in our witness to the Gospel

a memorial submitted by the undersigned for consideration by the New England Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America in assembly, Worcester, MA June 8-10, 2006

We live in a time of unprecedented challenges to us as Lutheran Christians committed to ministry carried out in fidelity to our Lutheran Confessions and the Holy Scriptures as the “inspired Word of God and the authoritative source and norm of [its] proclamation, faith, and life.” (NES Constitution, 4:03)

- a. In short order we have seen the appearance of such phenomena as for instance “The DaVinci Code,” both in novel and motion picture form; news reports over radio, newspaper, TV, and other media on the discovery of “The Gospel of Judas”; and various literary and theatrical productions contradicting or ridiculing religious faith, Christianity in particular.
- b. We now live in an era of multiculturalism wherein we are brought into proximity to adherents of faith traditions and values sharply different from our own. We also live in a time of relativism in which it is assumed that there is no universal truth for all but all belief systems are of equal weight and value.
- c. These phenomena along with the widespread use of certain types of biblical scholarship that undermines traditional views of the person and work of Jesus and Scriptural authority have led some Christians to question central teachings of the Christian faith and engage in practices inconsistent with belief in the sole sufficiency of Jesus Christ as God’s final revelation and source of eternal salvation for all humankind.
- d. Faced with these challenges, pastors of local congregations have had to assess and respond to the challenges to faith in our time on their own. This of course is admirable. However it may be that in some cases problems do not get addressed or the pastor’s resources might be limited. It is possible that our common, united witness to the Gospel to which the Apostle Paul exhorts us might be compromised and faithful believers of our congregations left confused.

In the light of these extraordinary and urgent circumstances, be it

RESOLVED: That this New England Synod Assembly memorialize the next Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America to authorize the creation of anew standing commission for this church to be known as the Advisory Commission on Faith and Theology, the commission to be composed of eleven individuals with the theological training and experience to aid the Commission in its work for the Church; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this Advisory Commission be charged with issuing statements and study materials along the lines of those that member churches of the old Lutheran Council I the U.S.A. used to receive from the Council’s Department of Theology, to aid individual members and congregations as well as all pastors and rostered personnel in responding in fresh ways without compromising our basic commitments as Lutheran Christians to specific pressing questions being put to us as we pursue our mission for Christ and the Gospel in this time, in this culture, in this country.

Time met for discussion. Discussion will be picked up later in the Assembly.

Lutheran Social Services of New England Report – Edith Lohr, president of LSS, reported on initiatives with displaced youth and the Good News Garage. She presented a plaque to St. Paul Lutheran Church, Arlington, MA, as this year’s recipient of the Hands of LSS award for partnering “above and beyond” with LSS to serve as the hands of Christ to those in need.

Philadelphia Seminary – The Rev. Dr. Phil Krey

Dr. Krey discussed current mission of seminary work including lay theological leadership development. The Rev. Glen Miller from the seminary then discussed the Brossman Learning Center as a manifestation of ongoing ministry for training religious professionals.

Calumet Report – Karl Ogren

Karl played a game with the Assembly recalling popular events and camper highlights. Suzanne Gillam, former chair of the board of directors, introduced Diane Beckwith as new board chair. Suzanne thanked Karl for his exemplary job as Interim Executive Director and introduced Calumet’s new Executive Director, the Rev. Dr. Nancy Eldredge Hess, under call to the NES for Outdoor Ministries.

Announcements – Bishop Payne announced the ordination candidates and AIM candidate.

Project Connect – Bishop Payne introduced Don Johnson

Project dedicated to strong/vital congregations and bringing in representation from ALL age/diversity groups into the life of the church: Specifically looking to young adults and people of color and primary language other than English and inviting them to discern if the Spirit might be leading them into public ministry.

Bishop's Appeal Report – Bishop Payne introduced George Ryder, co-chair of the appeal

The Appeal is designed for gift planning from households to fund programs within the Synod that fall outside of the Synod budget capabilities.

As an example of supporting youth initiatives the Lutheran Inter-Parish Youth of Central Massachusetts presented a report on a recent Mission Trip to the Nation's Capital: Congregations of Zion-Oxford, Trinity-Worcester and Immanuel-Holden were represented by six youth presenters and acknowledged the Synod's $2,400 funding of the program (developed by The Steinbruck Center for Urban Studies, Luther Memorial Church, Washington, DC), at the direction of Bishop Payne, that they were partakers of during the April 2006 school vacation week.

Mr. Ryder further reported on the financial status of the Appeal to date and thanked all of the supporters and those who worked in making the Appeal known to the congregations, including thanking Bishop Payne for her vision and leadership.

Budget Discussion and Vote – Bishop Payne introduced Charlie Anderson

Mr. Anderson presented the budget for discussion. Mission support by March for 2006 was about $200K short of expectations. The Synod Council was called upon to reduce the proposed budget by about $152K.

In the 2007 budget $2.9M was the expected need, and the Synod Council looked at what the anticipated response might be. Instead of looking at the response optimistically the Council agreed to hold the 2006 budget line for 2007. The $2.9M was reduced by about $600K.

Budget moved for discussion. Discussion ensued.

ADDENDUM

Henry Horn's reflection:

Bless We the Lord! Thanks be to God!

A Vivid Re-Collection
By Henry E. Horn

I appear before you to celebrate my Seventieth Anniversary of Ordination, and also the Centennial of Lutheran Campus Ministry. For one over ninety, it has to be my recollection on the theme of my call to ordained ministry. I recall the eve of my ordination in St. John's Church in Alban, N.Y., in 1936. Because of some appointments,¹ I had to meet with the Examining Committee just 2the day before. They grilled me on two points: they expected to hear from me an account of some light from heaven come to me or some voiced converted me. I insisted that the call was "in my bones" and when they agreed among themselves that THAT was NO CALL, they found that my document of Call had been signed by the Seminary for teaching, and not the parish. They saw no reason to pas me. But they must have had a bad dream collectively, because the next morning they met me with an affirmation; they would "let me though but we'll never do it again." So I was a pretty mixed up fellow that day.

I was then a scholar in history, thoroughly involved in editing and publishing my grandfather's Memoirs³... eight generations as Lutherans in America, using the English language,⁴ very unlike most others in the Synod. As my defense of my Call, I cited the two months when I was the care-taker of my Father,⁵ pioneer campus minister, after the stroke that only a month later took his life at forty-eight years of age – conversing with him about campus ministry. At the time I was nineteen, and President of the Church Council, and oldest of the four kids that were left at home. Most of that time, my Father was upset about the collapse of the very work we now celebrate at Madison, Wisconsin – a united team work of residents and students which hit the terrible snag of depression financing and lost their church. He didn't want that to happen at Cornell after only eight years in our new building. Under those circumstances what does one think of BUT Jesus' words in the Temple at 12 years of age, in King James lingo, "Wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?" For me in the response was "in my bones" ... my grandson

¹ My grandmother, Laura H. Jacobs, wife of Rev. Henry Eyster Jacobs, then widowed just four years and of course my Mother widowed the same years, BOTH had arrived expectantly. I never told them I had flunked!!!

² "in my bones" – My grandfather could tick off the names of about forty-eight living ministers in the Lutheran Church who were related at that time. The fact that Ed, Bill, Henry, and then Jim were ministers says something.

³ See THE LIFE OF A CHURCHMAN, the Memoirs of Henry Eyster Jacobs – published about 1960.

⁴ I have found recently a letter from my grandfather, Rev. Henry Eyster Jacobs, to his daughter, my mother, on four days after my birth. Here he gives thanks for my birth and being named after him, hoping that he would be faithful for posterity. He lists the eight generations in this country of Eysters and comments that this Ninth American Lutheran generation certainly should be able to CLAIM some recognition as Americans (this against the German hating public then.) See article by Fred Wentz in Gettysburg Seminary Ridge Bulletin, on Birthright American Lutherans.

⁵ Father was stricken on Passion Sunday 1932 while leading worship. The stroke paralyzed him on one whole side. He managed to "come back" to sit on the porch with me for these conversations. He was very clear then and much is in my memory that was said there.

at Harvard now majoring in Bio-Tech in his third year would probably say, “Grandpa, it would probably be in your NANO-GENES.” But I’m certainly not THERE yet!

1907 is the original date we are celebrating for the Centennial of Lutheran Campus Ministry. My own story started in 1913 when I was popped out at birth. But from my historical studies it was just also in 1907 that my Father accepted the pastorate of the Lutheran Church of the Advent in New York City at 93rd and Broadway, the nearest Lutheran church to Columbia and Barnard. And very soon thereafter, he drew in those students to form an Industrial School on Saturdays at the church. We have evidence that my Father, through a special committee of Synod,⁶ made contacts with Syracuse, Cornell, Dartmouth, Smith, Mount Holyoke and Wellesley. I cannot yet find out when, but our “Eastern work with students”⁷ may have been neck and neck with that of the mid-west at this date. In 1913 certainly, my Father received letters from both the Harvard and Cornell Clubs, urging the Synod to send them a Lutheran presence; and he sent two chaplains⁸ (they were on leave from duty, and so the Synod could scrape the money). As the World War for America started in 1917, the then President Fry of the Synod (the father of Franklin Clark Fry) wrote my Father: “We are going to have a resident Pastor at Cornell. It was your idea. You will have to go. We can’t pay you much salary ($2,000) but if anyone will go it will be you.” So in 1917, with the World War having commenced, the Horn family – 5 kids with whooping cough – completely outside quarantine restrictions – whooped their way in upper and lower berths for Ithaca, N.Y. That trip was my earliest memory. And it was immediately followed by a parsonage fire of considerable loss to us, a stern letter from the President of the University, denying the use of any on-campus space for Lutherans to gather⁹ we found out later the fear of everyone of any of German background was behind it all. We found an old mansion, Cascadilla Manse, right at the gate of the campus and there set up our work. There from 1918 to 1925, my years from five to twelve, I was completely mixed with students and residents in a growing Association; and it continued with our move in 1925 to a new church building also right at the campus gate. In my college days at home, I served for several years as President of the Church Council – till I was 19. Enough of my call coming out of my bones. In Depression days then it is hard to imagine how completely the idea of CAREERS could be wiped out. THAT implies that no one starts with a call, and then plans one step after another to a Career. Not then at all But my life unrolled in another direction.

Obviously, I wanted to finish my Father’s work in the campus ministry. So after seminary teaching for two years, I was waiting for two possible calls; one the Assistant Pastor at my Father’s native congregation in the South, old S. John’s, Charleston (which never came), and the other to starting campus ministry in New York city (which never came). Instead I was, while waiting, Interim Pastor in a large congregation of young people in Northeast Philadelphia.¹⁰ The President of the Ministerium of Pennsylvania maneuvered me into the leadership of the congregation – maneuvered is the word¹¹ -- but the needs of the congregation grabbed me. Six years were spent BEING SHAPED as a Pastor in the excessive demands of a Pastor in Depression times and early War years. I DID

⁶ I think first Committee on Men for the Ministry, till about 1915, and then Committee on Student’s Pastor (I think). Father insisted on keeping the Chair of this Committee for he evidentially expected to go farther in this field in his own life, but he was cut down too soon.

⁷ The quoted designation is what Rev. Donald Hetzler, Director of Campus Ministry said in a fine address at a celebration, I think in the Eighties.

⁸ The Chaplains were first, Rev. Samuel Trexler, later the long-time President of the United Lutheran Synod of New York, and a regular visitor in our Family’ and the Rev. Edwin Keever, also later a Pastor in Boston, and then spent his last years in North Carolina.

⁹ My father started holding services in Barnes Hall, on campus – as sort of “Y” center for the various student workers. This action by the President and Deans took him by surprise. Directly after the armistice our neighbor across the street paid a call on Father and revealed that he had been assigned to track him all over as though he were a German spy! At that time, Central New York was very anti-German, and they didn’t know what a Lutheran was. It was in the mid-twenties that a generous father of a student Father baptized gave us a fifty Watt radio station and we were able to broadcast our service through the air to the whole community and very soon were “our radio church.” Cornell had to use our station for their musical broadcasts.

¹⁰ Immanuel Lutheran Church, Burholme, Philadelphia. This was just the time when in Depression, the knitting mills which surrounded our section, all moved South leaving an unemployed or poorly employed mass of workers. Our congregation was closely knit, and enveloped a distinct real estate development at one time; thus giving us a mass of people living in the SAME area, and Immanuel was THE non Catholic Church to go to. We had a wonderful ministry together.

¹¹ “maneuvered” – Without my knowledge, the President of the Synod called on our sick pastor and demanded his resignation; then recommended to the Church Council that they call ME. As soon as I heard about this I resigned my Interim status and retired to our family home in Ithaca. I was embarrassed as I was waiting for calls of places that were after me. Immanuel called me and what could I do but accept though they were about as far away from college fold as one could get. Our six year s together were so wonderful that today I CANNOT IMAGINE HOW I left them – and with a hundred of our men in the Service. At Marion College I still kept in touch by mail with The Chatterbox monthly.

sneak over the State line to Princeton to gather Lutheran students there every fortnight for a total of $25 for the year, expenses not included. How I was ever soft on the next call to Marion Junior College for women, I shall never know. My wife, Catherine, always said “I can understand your call to come to a man’s college but to a women’s NO! NEVER!” I guess it was in war time that we did crazy things! Our church had no other women’s college but Marion, and I was immediately elected to the Board of Deaconess Work where we managed for twelve years to keep the call for women’s rights before the church – especially the ordination of women – VOCAL. There I managed to develop a voice which then embarrassed me on many occasions.¹² But the demands of a grown family – there were six little kids then, and a mother-in-law to house – I accepted a call to a wonderful city church in Augusta, GA, assuming that I would have a long pastorate right there.

However, very shortly thereafter, just when was settling in, the United States Government by fiat took over two South Carolina counties across the River, moved out 25,000 residents, brought in the same number of workers, mostly from the mid-West and unionized; and then desegregated military centers, especially camp Gordon, near-by. My congregation with its reputation for good music, etc., was an easy target for those early test cases in integration. These were pre-Martin Luther King days... actually Rosa Parks days. I met Dr. King only when I came to Cambridge. Right then, as I was embroiled in vexing problems, the call came from Cambridge in two sections: first from President Frederick Knubel, a dear friend, of the United Lutheran Synod of New York and New England, and then from the departing pastor at Cambridge, Edmund Steimle, who actually grew up in the parsonage that the Horns had left in New York City. Both, knowing about my “in my bones” answer to my Examining Committee, just said “You are the only man we want.” That was my call unmistakable – either Yes or No.¹³

So right here is where we served for twenty five years until my retirement in 1978. And “UniLu is a sort of by-word for ‘the Eastern type of Lutheran Campus Ministry.’”¹⁴ Cantered in worship, preaching, pastoral work and a Lutheran presence in the ongoing conversation of university life. I now go back to my first discussion, as to whether, putting together all these turning points that are OBVIOUS IN MY OWN EXPERIENCE – which Schillebeex called “the searchlight effect”¹⁵ I can see clearly a light going on in EACH of these turning points, shaping me for campus ministry in MY ADULT YEARS. And what a rich experience it has been!! Right now, with the help of a fellow retired minister,¹⁶ a confirmand of mine years ago, we are now OVERWHELMED at the sheer amount of “stuff” for the Seminary archives. It all reminds me of an nonexistent text which as a child I used to imagine hearing when the disciples were gathering up “the fragments that remained” after the Feeding of the Five Thousand, “... they must have said “Holy Mackerel, what the heck are we going to do with all this food? “Overwhelmed by Grace!!!” And it all makes sense in retrospect. Only my call came over and over again – in history – in the living life of the church, when someone in that church said, “We want YOU, NOW!” Maybe more of us should say THAT to others when we see we need!!! It COULD be considered favorably by the Call Committee. I only hope I can be right here seven years from now to celebrate – really IN MY BONES, my own Centennial in 20143. 1913 to 2013. I promise I won’t address you then.

I conclude by expressing my grateful thanks to a number of great companions who were so much a part of this celebration with me: Krister Stendahl, Connie Parvey, Gail and Ed Bucher, Paul Santmire, Art and Ronnie von Au, Jack and Diane Stevens, Ed and Gail Bucher, Roger and Carol Johnson, Martin and Millie Gilman, Bob and Eleanor Halfman, Faith Bloomquist, Carl Bergquist.

¹² I cannot recall nor do I have the physical ability to find out which Convention of the LCA I attended when they met, I think, in Kansas City about halfway through the sixties. I was a very vocal delegate and constantly popping up for this or that. When the Commission on Ministry, Charlie Cooper, Chair, came up it reported positively on our moving toward “studying” the ordination of women. Whatever was the exact motion, I can’t remember, but suddenly there was a motion proposed by a dear life-friend, Bob Stackel, who everybody knew was the aged of President Franklin Clark Fry to scoop up controversial issues by referring it to the Executive Board. In this case it was in order to involve Missouri – that is all Lutherans together. I KNEW from my Deaconess Board experience that it was an executive ploy, and I rose immediately – but Dr. Fry, like an older brother, asked me to get control of myself. I did, and pushed hard for the ordination of women SOON, that I had about a dozen at Harvard who were waiting for the church to make up its Mind. Well, it was a close vote but we won, and so the project took off till in a few years most everybody was for it. BUT at that very time something happened to my voice whenever I speak in a mike.

¹³ Ed Steimle called me long distance, “Henry, I want you to listen to the names of the Joes whom they are suggesting to SUCCEED ME!” He read them – and that was THAT. My Call was obvious.

¹⁵ I MUST RECOVER the work of Catholic theologian Schillebeeckx in his description of a piety of experience in which he uses the model of a hiker leading a bunch on a difficult trail at midnight, using a searchlight, and learning from flashing it here and there and tying it all together. I think I used it briefly in The Christian in Modern Style.

¹⁶ Thanks to the Rev. Carl Ficken, retired Professor at the Southern Seminary has described the “Henry Horn Papers” which are now being used as a model for spring by the Archives. See the Archive Advocate of the Philadelphia Seminary this Spring, 2006.

We still maintain a lively Lutheran spirit in the Conversations of Perhaps the Greatest Intellectual Center in the World.

If that staggers you, relax because I want to close with a little Gilbert and Sullivan, clipped from the Pirates of Penzance.

In fact, in matters vegetable, animal and mineral.
I am the very model of a modern CAMPUS MINISTER.

Bless We the Lord! Thanks be to God.
