

WORLD HUNGER EVENT: NEW ENGLAND SYNOD

Saturday, April 19: 9 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.
Emanuel Lutheran Church: Manchester, CT

Sunday, April 20: 2:00 – 6:30
Trinity Lutheran Church: Chelmsford, MA

Keynote speaker: Dr. George S. Johnson
Former World Hunger Director, ALC
Pastor, Theologian, Author of Beyond Guilt

Keynote Address: “What’s the Bottom Line?”

Workshops:

“The Cost of Moving from Charity to Justice:” Dr. George S. Johnson inspires and challenges us with Scriptural studies & his experience in working on behalf of the hungry and poor.

“Telling the Story in a Different Form:” Maude Carpenter & Chris Rothe use folk tales to demonstrate how we, as individuals, can help to alleviate hunger. The presenters, members of the CT Storytelling Center, enlighten & entertain while educating.

“Reducing Global Hunger:” Derrick Boykin, Bread for the World’s Northeast Regional Director, & Deirdra Schmidt explore ways for churches to make an impact in development assistance with the Millennium Development Goals & Offering of Letters.

Your ELCA World Hunger Funds At Work: Pastor David & Doreen Rinas share specific stories where World Hunger money is in use. Featured will be places in Tanzania where the presenters visited recently on a powerful mission trip. You’ll be able to use these stories back in your own church!

$10.00 registration fee covers lunch, hunger materials & Beyond Guilt, an excellent book by Dr. George S. Johnson. A team from your church can come for $25. Congregational World Hunger Advocates are free. Babysitting will be offered. Kindly register by April 10.
