

IDEAS THAT WORK!

Pastor Lisa Stoen Hazelwood (Transformational Ministry Specialist in the NES) and the New England Synod’s Evangelism Team are working together to sponsor a series of briefings entitled: “Ideas That Work!” At each briefing three congregations will bring teams of lay and clergy presenters to share with others their ideas about a particular and successful specialized ministry that energized their congregation. Presenters will also explain why they believe their ideas worked in their specific context. Each briefing will be offered twice with either northern/southern or eastern/western gatherings. The briefings will be hosted on Saturdays. Potential topics include:

Ideas that Work: Adding A Worship Service

Ideas that Work: Children’s Ministry

Ideas that Work: Connecting & Integrating New Members

Ideas that Work: Hospitality & Welcoming

Ideas that Work: Identifying & Nurturing Spiritual Gifts

Ideas that Work: Mission Experiences that Change Lives

Ideas that Work: Reinventing the Church Council for Worshipful Work

Ideas that Work: Social Ministry to Grow Your Church

Ideas that Work: Youth Ministry

Ideas that Work: _____

Ideas that Work: _____

On the empty lines above, please include your ideas/suggestions, and then circle the topics that most interest you!

Do you have a specialized ministry that has worked well and that you would be willing to tell others about? If so, please explain on the back of this sheet. —>

Please list your name and address or Email to receive flyers as the briefings are planned:
